

427 F Street, Suite 213
Eureka, CA 95503
info@hcbdc.org
707.599.6670

Trainer Biography

Larry Goldberg is the Business Analyst & Business Development Director of STS. He plays a critical role as principle consultant offering business plan development, financial projections & analysis, strategic planning, management training, IT management, and all aspects of business management. Mr. Goldberg is a successful entrepreneur with over 30 years of experience in business development, capitalization and management having founded and sold three companies on the Northcoast over that time. He currently consults with young cannabis entrepreneurs on business development, capitalization, market development and strategic planning.